

Catholics Cannot Take the USA Pledge of Allegiance or Serve in USA Military

By Richard Joseph Michael Ibranyi
Superior of Mary's Little Remnant

Mary's Little Remnant is a Catholic lay order and is not associated with the so-called Catholic Church in Rome, which is not the true Catholic Church. According to the true Catholic faith, Catholics are banned from taking the USA Pledge of Allegiance and joining the USA military because they would have to consent to heresies and immoralities.

The USA Pledge of Allegiance

USA Pledge of Allegiance: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God,<sup>1</sup> indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

It is heretical to pledge allegiance to the USA republic because the republic stands for the heresies contained in its Declaration of Independence and Constitution.

It is heretical because the USA is not under the true God, the Catholic God. Instead, the god of the USA is Satan.

It is heretical because God, as well as any sane society, does not promise liberty to all men. God "hath commanded no man to do wickedly, and he hath given no man license to sin." (Eccus. 15:21) Even the USA implicitly acknowledges this when they put criminals in jail and deprive them of liberty. God does not give liberty to men guilty of original sin or mortal sin. God gives true liberty only to Catholics in a state of grace. Hence the following applies to the USA and all other republics and democracies:

"Leaving the right way they have gone astray... These are fountains without water, and clouds tossed with whirlwinds, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved. For, speaking proud words of vanity, they allure by the desires of fleshly riotousness, those who for a little while escape, such as converse in error: Promising them liberty, whereas they themselves are the slaves of corruption. For by whom a man is overcome, of the same also he is the slave."
(2 Pt. 2:15-19)

The USA Declaration of Independence

Heretical part of the USA Declaration of Independence: "When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them..."

This is heretical because God does not give all men the right to form their own nation and because God decrees that some men should be slaves and thus have no nation.

Heretical part of the USA Declaration of Independence: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal..."

This is heretical because all men are not equal. Women are not equal to men, children are not equal to parents, citizens are not equal to rulers, slaves are not equal to masters, workers are not equal to bosses, captains are not equal to generals, etc. Not all Catholics are equal. St. Paul says, “God indeed hath set some in the Church; first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly doctors; after that miracles; then the graces of healings, helps, governments, kinds of tongues, interpretations of speeches.” (1 Cor. 12:28) “Let women be subject to their husbands, as to the Lord: Because the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ is the head of the Church.” (Eph. 5:22-23)

Heretical part of the USA Declaration of Independence: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men...are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty...”

This is heretical because God does not give men the unalienable right to life. For one, all men die. “It is appointed unto men once to die, and after this the judgment.” (Heb. 9:27) Two, nations have the right to send men to war in which many die. Three, men who commit certain crimes should be put to death. After giving a list of certain crimes, St. Paul says, “They who do such things are worthy of death; and not only they that do them, but they also that consent to them that do them.” (Rom. 1:32)

It is also heretical because God does not give men the unalienable right to liberty, as stated above.

The USA Constitution

The First, Fifth, Eighth, and Thirteenth Amendments of the USA Constitution are heretical:

The First Amendment: “(Freedom of expression and religion) Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press...”

This is heretical because God does not give the State the right to be separated from His Catholic Church and religion. “For the nation and the kingdom that will not serve thee [the Catholic God] shall perish.” (Isa. 60:12)

It is heretical because God does not give men the right to worship false gods or practice false religions. “I am the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not have strange gods before me.” (Ex. 20:2-3)

It is heretical because God does not give men or the press the freedom to say whatever they want. Although God gives men the freewill to think or believe whatever they want and to attempt to say or do whatever they want, He does not give them the freedom, meaning the liberty or right, to think, believe, say, or do whatever they want. If they believe, say, or do something against God’s law, then they sin and will be punished by God in one way or another. For God “hath commanded no man to do wickedly, and he hath given no man license to sin.” (Eccus. 15:21) “Nor bind sin to sin: for even in one thou shalt not be unpunished.” (Eccus. 7:8)

The Fifth Amendment: “No person...shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself...”

This is heretical because it condones lies and sins of omission by allowing by right of law a guilty man to lie or remain silent about his guilt. “The just is first accuser of himself: his friend cometh and shall search him.” (Prv. 18:17) “Confess therefore your sins one to another.” (Jam. 5:16)

The Eighth Amendment: “Cruel and unusual punishments [shall not be] inflicted.”

This is heretical because God condones many kinds of torture under certain circumstances. “Judgments are prepared for scorers: and striking hammers for the bodies of fools.” (Prv. 19:29) “Torture and fetters are for a malicious slave.” (Eccus. 33:28) See (2 Ki. 12:31). After all, God tortures devils and humans in hell for all eternity. “And the smoke of their torments shall ascend up for ever and ever: neither have they rest day nor night...” (Apoc. 14:11) “They shall have their portion in the pool burning with fire and brimstone...” (Apoc. 21:8)

The Thirteenth Amendment: “(Slavery and Involuntary Servitude) Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.”

This is heretical because God condones slavery, not just for convicted criminals but also for whole groups of people either because of their sins or the sins of their forefathers. St. Peter says, “Slaves be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle but also to the froward. (1 Pt. 2:18) St. Paul says, “Slaves be obedient to them that are your lords according to the flesh, with fear and trembling...” (Eph. 6:5) And “Whosoever are slaves under the yoke, let them count their masters worthy of all honour.” (1 Tim. 6:1) After all, during the Old Covenant era God ordained that His chosen people, the Jews, could own slaves and would become slaves themselves if they grievously disobeyed Him, as happened when God made them slaves in Egypt and Babylon.

USA Military Oaths

Oath of Enlistment: “I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to regulations and the Uniform Code of Military Justice. So help me God.”<sup>2</sup>

Oath for Commissioned Officers: “I, _____, having been appointed an officer in the Army of the United States, as indicated above in the grade of _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter; So help me God.”<sup>3</sup>

These oaths are heretical because Catholics are banned under pain of heresy from giving their faith and allegiance to the heretical Constitution of the United States.

“I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic” is heretical and traitorous because Catholics are forbidden under pain of heresy and treachery to defend the non-Catholic USA above all else and thus to fight against the pope or a Catholic nation or a Catholic army if the non-Catholic USA orders it.

Pledges or Oaths that Catholics could take

The apostate antipopes are the guiltiest for allowing so-called Catholics to take this heretical Pledge of Allegiance and Military Oath and thus make it impossible for them to be Catholic. “They are blind, and leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both fall into the pit.” (Mt. 15:14) They should have fought for another pledge of allegiance and military oath that <sup>2</sup> Title 10, US Code; Act of 5 May 1960 replacing the wording first adopted in 1789, with amendment effective 5 October 1962.

Catholics could take, such as “I pledge allegiance to the USA and all its non-sinful laws; but my primary allegiance is to the Catholic God, the Catholic Church, and the papacy.” Catholics’ first allegiance must be to the Catholic God, the Catholic Church, and the papacy or they become schismatics and heretics. Less acceptable would be “I pledge allegiance to the USA.” Even though this does not include the last parts of the best pledge, those parts could be assumed because no one gives blind obedience to a ruler or country and it does not say one gives his ultimate allegiance to the USA.

Heretical immorality

By mandate, the USA military, as a general law, allows women to rule over men and fight in wars. This is against God’s natural law and is immoral and heretical.

By mandate, the USA military allows homosexuals and transgenders to enter and remain in the military. This is against God’s natural law and is immoral and heretical.

Hence for these reasons alone, Catholics cannot join the USA military. If they do, then they are partners in these crimes and thus are guilty of the mortal sins of heresy and immorality.

USA soldiers who want to be Catholic must quit the military

Any USA military member who wants to become a true Catholic and thus have a hope to save his soul must reject, condemn, and terminate his membership in the USA military. And the military is bound to give him an honorable discharge based upon his religious beliefs, just as it does with other religious groups, such as the Mormons, Amish, and Jehovah’s Witnesses.
