

Catholics Must Vote for Trump in USA's 2016 Presidential Race

By Richard Joseph Michael Ibranyi

Bold: the Catholic position; Italics: the non-Catholic position; Non-bold, non-Italics: partial Catholic/non-Catholic position. The priorities are in this order: electability,¹ religious liberty for Catholics,² and evilness.³

² When choosing between the electable candidates, Catholics must vote for the one who promises Catholics the most religious liberty even if that candidate is more evil than an electable candidate who does not promise them as much religious liberty.

³ If all the electable candidates promise Catholics equal religious liberty, then Catholics must vote for the one who is less evil.

⁴ He does not hold many Republican positions and thus many party-line Republicans do not support him.

⁵ Religious liberty for Catholics means allowing them to profess and live by the Catholic faith. This is the second, overriding position. Hence whichever electable candidate allows Catholics the most religious liberty is the one to choose regardless of his other positions; that is, even if he has more anti-Catholic positions than the other candidates who would allow Catholics less religious liberty.

⁶ Some Republicans are against transgenderism.

⁷ A limited feminist, or half-feminist, believes that women as a general rule can work outside the home and hold positions of authority equal to or above men; but they believe that the primary job of mothers is to take care of their children and home and obey their husbands. They love their husbands and men, and they are not lesbians. A full feminist believes that women are equal to or above men in all things and thus even in the home. They despise taking care of their home and children. They hate, despise, or look down upon men; the only men they like are effeminate. Most of them are lesbians or support lesbians.

⁸ Some Republicans are against all abortions.

⁹ Political correctness is a part of the heresy of non-judgmentalism. In order to not offend people, it lies about or covers up the sins and physical defects of humans by giving these sins or physical defects names that make them seem non-sinful or non-defective. However, it does judge and condemn people who are not politically correct; that is, people who tell the truth by calling a sin or defect what it is.

¹⁰ Most Republicans are for political correctness.

¹¹ Some Republicans are against torture.

¹² A few Republicans are against heliocentrism.

¹³ Most if not all Democrats are for heliocentrism.

¹⁴ Many Republicans are against evolution.

¹⁵ Most if not all Democrats are for evolution.

Hence Catholics must not vote for Darrel Castle, even though he is the best candidate, because he is un-electable and thus has no chance of winning. And Catholics must not vote for Hillary Clinton because she will limit religious liberty for Catholics and Trump will not, and that is beside the fact that she is the greatest evil of all the candidates. Therefore Catholics must vote for Donald Trump. Any so-called Catholic who votes for Hillary Clinton is guilty of mortal sin for voting for a worse electable candidate. Even though Catholics must not vote for Darrel Castle because he is un-electable, they must nevertheless support him and the Constitution Party because it is the least evil of all the parties. They should support it financially in order for the party to grow, and they should work for laws to be changed or passed that would allow its candidates to have a real chance to be elected. Visit St. John the Baptist Website www.JohnTheBaptist.us or send to the above address to learn of your only hope for eternal salvation. Jesus says, "He [who] will not hear the Church, let him be to thee as the heathen and publican." (Matthew 18:17) Thus there is only one true Church of Jesus Christ, the Catholic Church, outside of which there is no salvation. Beware of the false Catholics and false Catholic churches in Rome and elsewhere. They will lead you to hell!

¹⁶ In this case, conservative means a candidate that holds all the Catholic positions. Part conservative means one who holds some Catholic positions. Liberal means one who holds none or very few Catholic positions.

¹⁷ Zionism is the belief that apostate Jews [non-Catholic Jews] have the right to repossess Israel after the Romans destroyed the Temple in AD 70 and banished the apostate Jews from Israel. Full Zionism states that only apostate Jews have the right to possess all of Israel (this is known as the One-State solution). Limited Zionism states that apostate Jews and the Palestinians both have the right to possess Israel and hence must share it (this is known as the Two-State solution).

¹⁸ Such as by unjust trade agreements and illegal persons taking the jobs of citizens.

¹⁹ Most Republicans are for stealing jobs from citizens.

²⁰ Capitalism promotes and rewards greedy men by allowing them to steal from and oppress others and ruin the environment. It does so by opposing regulations or by insufficiently regulating banks, businesses, wages, prices, selling and buying, and healthcare. Because most men are evil, insufficient regulation or the lack of regulation allows them by law to steal from and oppress others and ruin the environment without any consequences. Unless banks, businesses, wages, prices, selling and buying, and healthcare are sufficiently governed and regulated by good laws and the enforcement of those laws, most men, because they are greedy and sinful, will steal from and oppress others and some will ruin the environment.

²¹ Most Republicans are for these unjust wars.

²² As a general rule, women must not fight in wars except in emergency situations and must not have authority over men in the military. However, women can have certain jobs in the military, such as secretaries, nurses, etc.
