The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Dear Fr. John Martinez,

I write this letter to make reparation for my sin of rashly denouncing you for denouncing Thomas Aquinas as a non-saint and a heretic. Upon further study and honest reflection on Aquinas' teachings, he is indeed a non-saint and a heretic. I should have at least listened to the evidence you were going to present to me, but instead I abruptly denounced you and dismissed you. So I apologize to you for my rash judgment and unjust denunciation of you regarding this matter. Enclosed is my book Canonizations Are Not Infallible and some of my works that denounce so-called saints as non-saints and heretics:

- RJMI book: Canonizations Are Not Infallible
- RJMI book: Against the Heretic Thomas More
- RJMI book: Damned Infants: "Aquinas' Heretical Beliefs That Damned Infants Are Happy and United to God" and "Aquinas' Pelagian Heresy That Original Sin Is Not a Real Sin That Causes Real Guilt."
- RJMI audio lecture: Thomas Aquinas' Eternal World Heresy (Arl 7)

However, my denunciation against you for being in religious communion with heretics, such as members of the Vatican II Church and heretical Traditionalists, still stands until you repent and abjure from being in religious communion with heretics.

And my denunciation against you for not requiring specific abjurations from those who are members of the Vatican II Church or heretical Traditionalist sects still stands.

You do not seem to care one bit about what others believe whom you consider Catholic.

Enclosed is my catalog. I will send you any of my works free of charge.

I will be praying and sacrificing for your repentance and conversion into the Catholic Church. May Jesus through Mary grant you all the graces and other helps you need to repent and convert.
